

Lindsey And D A V I D

WE ARE DAVID + LINDSEY

Though we haven't crossed paths yet, the possibility of welcoming your child into our lives fills us with an immense desire to offer them the very best. We understand the weight of your decision in this vast search for the perfect match, and while you navigate this journey, know that David and I approach it with utmost respect and understanding.

Now, let us share our story with you...

OUR LOVE STORY

Our love story began not with candlelit dinners or grand gestures, but over a simple cup of coffee at Starbucks. I remember sipping my Passion Fruit iced tea, while David enjoyed his Mocha Frappuccino. We weren't strangers, having connected on Christian Mingle, but there was a world to discover beyond profiles.

We met...

online through Christian Mingle and had our first date at Starbucks!

That first date wasn't about fancy drinks or impressing each other. It was about digging deeper, sharing about our families, and realizing how deeply this value resonated with both of us. It was a connection built on shared beliefs and a mutual desire for something real.

Perhaps that's why we suggest a coffee date for the first meeting. It's not about the extravagance, but the space to truly connect, to talk, and to discover if there's something more beneath the surface. And for us, it led to seven years of marriage and a love story that started with a simple cup of coffee.

L I N D S E Y

Lindsey is something truly special. Her ability to connect resonates deeply with everyone she meets, including my father who, after just one encounter, echoed my sentiment of her exceptional communication skills. Describing her in words feels impossible within this limited space, but know that my love for her transcends any character limit.

From the day we met, I knew she was my "always and forever" - the missing piece I'd unknowingly waited for. Witnessing her heartfelt desire to be a mother has fueled my own excitement to be a father. The look in her eyes when her dream finally comes true will be a treasure forever etched in my memory.

Her inherent kindness and genuine warmth radiate outward, touching the lives of everyone around her. She's not just an incredible woman; she's an amazing soul destined to be the most phenomenal mother imaginable.

about

David embodies kindness in every way. He's passionate about his interests, deeply caring, and always ready to lend a helping hand. Whether it's diving into history books, getting lost in a good show, or (believe it or not!) tackling chores with enthusiasm, his genuine nature shines through. Did I win the lottery or what?

When David met my family, the joy he exuded while playing with my nephews ignited a flicker of understanding. It wasn't just compatibility; it was the vision of a future filled with laughter and love. Little did I know, fate had even more in store. Learning about his infertility struggles strengthened our bond in a way I couldn't have predicted. It solidified the incredible man he is - someone who embraces me fully, imperfections and all.

The depth of my love for David's gentle spirit and his ability to make me feel cherished is immeasurable. Witnessing his interactions with children only reaffirms what I know to be true: he'll be an incredible father. I can't wait to see that dream unfold!

WE LOVE TO TRAVEL

Lindsey and I don't just collect souvenirs, we collect memories! Since our honeymoon in Maui, every exciting adventure has been immortalized in a personalized Shutterfly book. From the magic of Disneyland to the awe-inspiring landscapes of Alaska, we turn each trip into a tangible treasure.

But it's not just about the souvenirs - it's about the shared experiences. We prioritize at least one big trip a year, immersing ourselves in new cultures and exploring hidden gems. Weekend getaways are our secret sauce, adding spontaneous dashes of adventure to our routine.

With wanderlust firmly woven into our hearts, we dream of ticking off more destinations on our ever-growing bucket list. The world is a magnificent tapestry, and we're determined to explore its vibrant threads, hand-in-hand, one adventure at a time.

our favorite place ever : Maui, Hawaii souviners: We collect a shotglass from every place we visit.

greatest experience: Seeing the Alaskan Glaciers, and "mushing" with Iditarod Huskies!

ABOUT "LANI"

Have you seen the Pixar film, "Up?" Well, we have our own real-life Dug. Meet Evergreen Labrador's Kaylani Lana (Heaven Blessed in Hawaiian)!

Lani (or, affectionately, Lani Loo) is our fur baby. She is 77 pounds of fluffy, furry, fun. Kaylani will be your child's best friend! Why is that? Everyone she meets is her best friend!

Lani loves to spend time in our backyard playing fetch and swimming in our pool! She loves walks and is eager to please. She is well trained and holds many A.K.C. (American Kennel Club) titles including Canine Good Citizen.

She loves food and will do anything or treats! She loves cuddles and gives lots of wet puppy kisses!

FUN FACT

She pops her head up at the foot of the bed when she wants permission to come up and cuddle!

ABOUT OUR

Family & friends

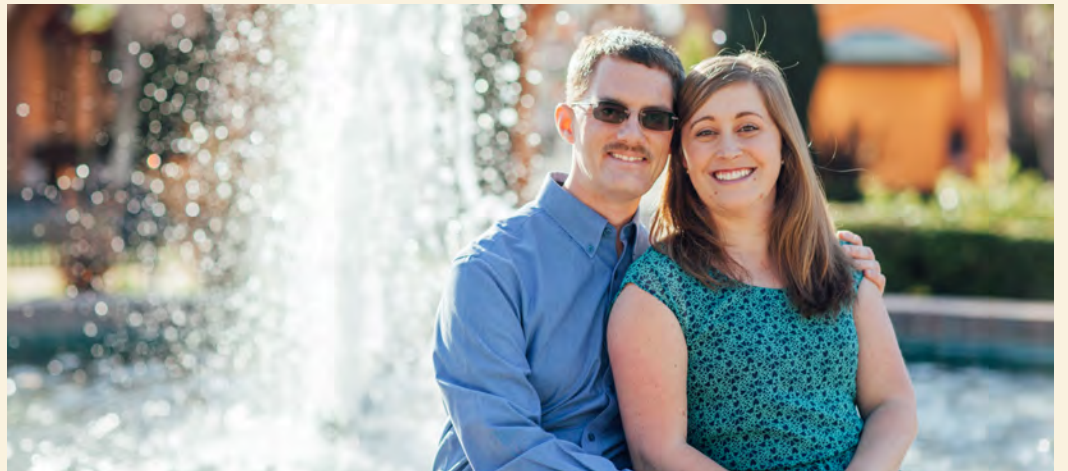

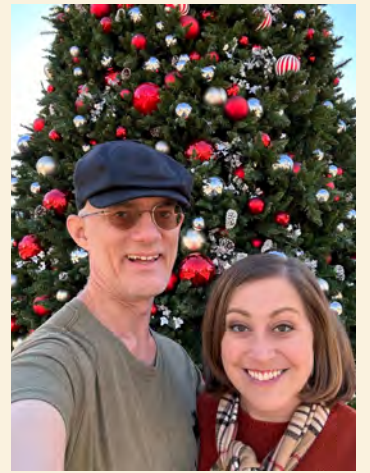

Think big family dinners, laughter echoing through the house - that's us! Lindsey, the third of four siblings, brings the "big family experience" to David and his younger brother. Throw in five fun-loving nephews and one adorable niece, and you have the recipe for a great time! Weekends are sacred - visiting, laughing, and creating memories with people who just "get" us. Friends become family too, because who needs drama when you can have genuine connections? We gather often, celebrate everything, and wouldn't trade this loving bunch for anything!

OUR traditions

Food, fun, and laughter are staples in our lives! As a couple, we cherish our weekly "Date Nights" at our local Chili's. Whether it's catching up over familiar favorites or trying something new, these evenings are dedicated to strengthening our bond and enjoying each other's company.

These traditions, big and small, weave a tapestry of shared experiences and connection, making our lives richer and more joyful.

Thank you for considering us,

WE REALIZE THAT YOU ARE FACING A DIFFICULT DECISION.

To Birthmom,

A LETTER

Thank you for considering us as potential parents. We realize that you are facing a difficult decision. Choosing one couple out of so many is a stressful one. Indeed, knowing that the chosen couple will raise your child is a choice that I cannot imagine making. You have shown great strength and courage putting your unborn child first. We want you to know that, whatever the outcome, we think you are very brave.

Constant prayer, family support, and church fellowship helped us realize our calling to become adoptive parents. The more we looked into adoption, we felt peace and assurance that this was His chosen path for us. We, by nature, have very open and loving hearts with which to welcome a child into our home. We desire to give him or her the best life possible!

Our journey to parenthood has not been without tears. Lindsey had been diagnosed with premature ovarian failure. I, myself, learned of my own infertility during our process of trying to start our family. We pursued IVF and looked into surrogacy. Both, unfortunately, met with difficulty and ultimate failure. Living with the pain of being unable to have children of our own is a painful struggle.

We are sure that our future child will learn quickly that dad is the Teddy Bear and mom is Wonder Woman! Your child will have the strongest family love and support, encouraged to strive for whatever dreams he or she may have. Your child will be nurtured in love and will thrive! We wish you all the love, happiness, and healing in your journey!

*Sincerely,
David and Lindsey*
